FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

When is State Executive Order 21-102 effective?

The Executive Order was signed by Governor DeSantis on Monday, May 3, 2021, and was effective immediately.

Is Seminole County Executive Order 2021-020, requiring social distancing and facial coverings for individuals and businesses, still in effect?

State Executive Order 21-102 suspends Seminole County Executive Order 2021-020 and its requirements for social distancing and facial coverings.

Can a business require the use of facial coverings inside its establishment?

Yes, private businesses, including businesses offering personal services such as salons and spas, and places of assembly, may require facial coverings and social distancing. If a business owner chooses to require facial coverings, adequate signage should be visible reflecting this condition. The State Executive Order does not prohibit a private business from requiring these practices. If a customer is non-compliant, the business may refuse service or contact law enforcement.
